Too Many Demands and Too Much Coddling Can Lead to Anxiety, Depression and Defiance Disorder in Teens

By Ms. Diane Zatkoff, Principal, Ninth Grade Center

Chippewa Valley as well as many schools around the country have seen a tremendous rise in the above mentioned health issues. Many teenagers are suffering from being anxious (anxiety and panic attacks) or are extremely saddened (depression) and still some have trouble with authority (deviance disorder). How does this happen? That is a question that is asked by many parents, teens and even psychologists. A new study has shown that five times as many high school students are dealing with anxiety and depression than in years past and 15 times as many feel that rules don't apply to them. Many students are struggling with the stresses of school and life in general. What's behind the rise is uncertain. What do we do about it?

There is no real correlation to anything, but some professionals speculate that a popular culture increasingly focused on the external (from wealth to looks and status) has contributed to the uptick in these mental health issues. Some experts also note that well-meaning but overprotective parents have left their children with few real-world coping skills, whether that means doing their own budget or confronting teachers on their own. Dr. Elizabeth Alderman from New York's Montefiore Medical Center claims if students don't have any of these skills, then it's very normal to become anxious and depressed. Others feel that economic distress, dysfunctional families, absent and preoccupied busy parents, technology obsession, social media and extraordinary pressure on kids to excel is an enormous problem.

Students themselves point to everything from pressure to succeed to a fast-paced world that's only sped up by the technology they love so much. They feel they can do anything, and that sets up a lot of false expectation, that inevitably leads to distress for some. It's also meant heartache for parents.

Schools have been very accommodating with students, trying to get them to come to school and enjoy the day, worry-free. Various degrees of accommodations have been put in place to help students get through the school day. Parents need to also:

- Pay attention to their child's feelings.
- Stay calm when their child becomes anxious about a situation or event.
- cognize and praise small accomplishments.
- Don't punish mistakes or lack of progress.
- Be flexible and try to maintain a normal routine.
- Modify expectations during stressful periods.
- Plan for transitions (For example, allow extra time in the morning if getting to school is difficult).

Remember to keep in mind, that a child's anxiety disorder diagnosis is not a sign of poor parenting. However, it may add stress to family life. It is helpful to build a support network of relatives and friends and school personnel. Contact the school counselor immediately and definitely seek outside counseling. Waiting for these issues to dissipate will only cause more anguish and frustration. Chippewa Valley is here to help students become successful and productive individuals today and in the future.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT AND CLASS ELECTIONS

Election of officers for the 2016-17 Student Government and Class Councils will take place on Friday, April 22nd, during all lunches in the cafeteria. Students currently in 10th and 11th grades will be able to cast their ballots for Student Government and their respective class officer candidates. Current 9th Graders also will be able to cast their ballots for class officer candidates.

Please encourage your children to take an active part in school by voting on this day. A student needs some form of identification to show the election workers (just like the real world) in order to receive a ballot and vote.

The results of the election will give us our Student Government leadership for next year and officers for the new Senior, Junior and Sophomore Class Councils. Next year's Freshmen Class Representatives will be selected through an application process that begins at the Big Red Check-In at the Ninth Grade Center.

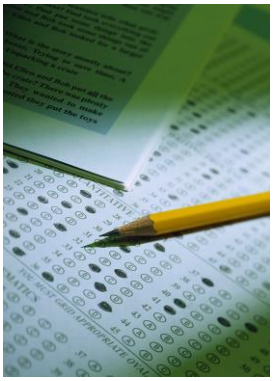
TESTING OUT

By Tony Fiorvento



As we begin scheduling preparations for the 2016-17 school year, we want to share information on the following opportunity that is available to all students. According to the guidelines of Public Act 335, Section 1279B, of the State Code, high school students have the opportunity to "test out" of courses. The purpose of testing out is to allow students to be placed in higher-level courses in the subject area in which they test out.

To successfully test out of a course and receive credit, students must exhibit mastery of the course content by attaining a grade of 75% or better on a comprehensive final examination. Students may also be required to demonstrate mastery through basic assessments used in the class, which may include, but are not limited to, portfolios, performances, papers, projects and/or presentations. We administer all "testing out" examinations for both semesters of the 2016-17 school year in August. The testing out registration form is now available in the Main Office or on our website under course scheduling. Registration deadline is Friday, May 13, 2016. Exams will be administered in August with dates and times being confirmed in June when study materials are picked up (main office for 10th – 12th grade tests, 9th Grade Center for freshmen tests). Eighth grade students can return completed registration forms to the 9th Grade Center. If you have further questions regarding testing out, please contact your child's guidance counselor.

Food Service would like to say thank you to all those who participated in our debit program this school year. We hope you found it an easier and quicker way for your students to purchase food.

It is our policy to 'roll' all ending balances over for the next school year. However, if your student is leaving the district you will need to request a refund. This would particularly pertain to 12th graders who will be leaving the district upon graduation.

Food Service will provide green "ATTENTION DEBIT USERS" forms to each school office and kitchen. These forms give specific instructions on our refund procedures. They will be available for pickup by May 9, 2016. It is your responsibility to submit this form to the Food Service Dept. before refunds are issued.

May 6, 2016 will be the LAST day Food Service will accept checks to be deposited in debit accounts for all students. There will be NO EXCEPTIONS!!! We will, however, continue to accept cash deposits until the end of the school year.

CVHS 9th Grade Center Guidance News

Career Day – Another Success!

On Wednesday, March 23rd, all freshmen attended our annual Career Day. It was a wonderful opportunity for students to learn more about different careers, mostly presented by our very own CVHS alumni. Students were able to ask questions and hopefully begin the process of thinking about their future. Please take the time to talk to your son or daughter and ask what they learned and what they are thinking about their future. It is never too early to begin discussing their goals, dreams, and what it will take to reach them.

PSAT Testing

On Tuesday, April 12th, all 9th grade students will be completing the PSAT test. The PSAT is a comprehensive guidance resource used to help prepare students for the SAT, a college entrance exam taken junior year. Encourage your son or daughter to do their best! When results are received, students are encouraged to use them to understand and improve upon weaker areas as well as to help make plans for the remaining years of high school and beyond! Effective this spring, the SAT is replacing the ACT. Additional information can be found by visiting https://sat.collegeboard.org and our CVHS Guidance Website at http://cvhsguidance.weebly.com/sat.html.

Answering a common question, "Why Go to College?"

Whether you are uncertain about going to college or you just need some reassurance you're on the right track, here are a few reasons to go to college:

Every bit of education you get after high school increases the chances you'll earn good pay. Most college graduates earn more money during their working years than people who stop their education at high school earn.

The more education you get the more likely it is you will always have a job. According to one estimate, by the year 2028 there will be 19 million more jobs for educated workers than there are qualified people to fill them.

Continuing education after high school is much more important for your generation than it was for your parents' generation. Today most good jobs require more than a high school diploma. Businesses want to hire people who know how to think and solve problems.

Education beyond high school gives you a lot of other benefits, including meeting new people, taking part in new opportunities to explore your interests, and experiencing success.

Use Big Future's online College Search to find and review information about colleges at https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org.

What can I do my Freshman Year to start planning for College?

- Find out how to make the most of high school
- Plan challenging high school courses
- Become familiar with college entrance requirements
- Review NWEA and PSAT results with your parents and school counselor
- Start thinking about reasons for attending college
- Join/continue extracurricular activities
- Attend summer camp at a college to experience a college-like atmosphere
- Research college costs
- Continue/start saving for college
- Meet with your college/career counselor at least once a year
- Explore careers on the Internet by visiting a free interactive World-of-Work Map

The weather is warming up… but no time to slack off!

With the weather improving, the temptation is for students to let their studies slack off. Remind your son or daughter to stay focused. Help them by setting time each evening for studying. If they need some fresh air (and don't we all!), maybe a good time is between 6:00 – 8:00 PM. FRESHMEN GRADES COUNT! Help them understand how they perform now impacts their overall GPA for all four years – the higher the GPA, the more improved their chances are of getting into the college of their choice. Encourage your son or daughter to attend Homework Club after school on Tuesdays from 2:20 – 3:30 PM in the CV9 Media Center. Remember that both teachers and NHS tutors are available to help students get back on track academically.

SENIOR BEHAVIOR: It is expected that seniors will continue to be a positive influence for the remainder of the school year. We request the support of students, parents, and staff to help us attain this goal.

Week of May 23rd – SENIOR CLEARANCE FOR GRADUATION: Seniors must turn in all books, pay all outstanding fines (main office and library) and turn in all school equipment by the end of the day on Friday, May 27h (Unless a spring athletic team is still in competition). June 1st-3rd SENIOR EXAMINATIONS:
Seniors will attend class for a full day on Wednesday, June 1st with final examinations in their fifth and sixth hours; hours one through four on Thursday, June 2nd with examinations during third and fourth hours; hours one and two on Friday, June 3rd with final examinations in those hours.

June 12th – COMMENCEMENT: This year's ceremony will be at Ultimate Soccer Arena on 867 South Boulevard in Pontiac at 10:00am. Seniors must report to Ultimate Soccer no later than 9:00am. They will be directed to the designated staging area of the facility in order to be lined up for processional. Caps and gowns must be worn and appropriate clothing under gowns is required. Caps MAY NOT be decorated or adorned whatsoever. Students with decorated caps may be denied participation in the event. Girls cannot wear high heeled shoes in the staging area and it is recommended that another footwear option is chosen for the afternoon. Girls wearing high heels will be asked to take them off while in the staging area. Entrance to the facility and seating for guests with tickets will begin at 8:00am.

PARKING AT Ultimate Soccer: Each graduate will receive one (1) ticket for parking in the primary lot. Therefore, carpooling is highly recommended. There will be ample parking in the supplemental lots which will require a short walk or shuttle bus ride to the facility. As you enter the facility, please follow the directions of the parking attendants and CVHS staff. Parking and the doors to the facility will open at 8:00am for the families and friends of graduates. Please do not arrive earlier because cars will not be allowed in the lot until 8:00am and families will not be allowed to enter the facility until 8:00am. Students will receive five (5) tickets and a layout of the grounds in April. Only students on track to graduate will receive tickets at this time. Students who wish to apply for more tickets must fill out a form. Forms will be available in the Main Office or on the school's website. Completed forms will be due in the Main Office by Wednesday, May 18th. Parents will be contacted the week of May 23rd if their respective requests have been accommodated or not. Please DO NOT contact the Main Office before the initial round of tickets are distributed.

PICTURE TAKING AT COMMENCEMENT: Picture taking can be very disruptive during the ceremony and guests are not allowed to approach the stage to take pictures. We have made arrangements for professional photographers to take a series of pictures of every graduate as they receive their diploma. Parents can have the best intentions when they allow their teen to have a party in their home, but permitting underage drinking is a big mistake. Teen drinking is illegal and unsafe.

THINGS YOU CAN DO AS A PARENT

1. Refuse to supply alcohol to anyone under 21, including your own child.

2. Know the laws. Serving alcohol to minors is illegal and can result in stiff penalties, including up to 90 day in jail and up to a $1,000 fine. In addition, parents can be sued if they give alcohol to a teen and the teen is injured in any way.
   Taking car keys is never enough!

3. Be at home when your teen has a party - and be visible. Make sure that alcohol is not brought into your home or on your property by anyone under the age of 21.

4. Talk to other parents about not providing alcohol at parties and other events your child will be attending. Call parents having parties in their homes to determine if the party is supervised and alcohol-free.

5. Create alcohol-free activities in your home for your teen and his/her friends.

6. Create alcohol-free activities for teens in your community.

7. Report underage drinking to local law enforcement officials.

A message from the Chippewa Valley Coalition for Youth and Families –
Joining school and community in promoting safe and drug-free youth and supporting families.

Parents Who Host Lose the Most is a program of the Drug-Free Alliance and the Macomb County Prevention Coalition.

6 Good Reasons Why Teens and Alcohol Are a BAD Combination

1. A teen's brain is still developing.
   The teen brain is a "work in progress". Research by the NIDA (the National Institute of Drug Abuse) found that the brain's frontal lobes, a critical area for the development of judgment and acquiring information, is not fully developed until someone is in his/her 20's. Considerable research tells us that regular use of alcohol or other drugs by adolescents can have life-long negative effects on their brain chemistry and the structural organization of the brain.

2. Teens do not always make good decisions.
   Alcohol use decreases impulse control and increases risky decisions that can lead to injury, dangerous sexual behavior, sexual assault or other kinds of violence, alcohol poisoning, and even death.

3. Teen use of alcohol is illegal.
   Teens that drink are breaking the law. It is illegal for adults, even the own teen's parent, to allow a teen to drink. It is important that all adults send a CLEAR message to teens that underage drinking is illegal and unacceptable.

4. Research tells us that postponing alcohol use beyond the teen years SIGNIFICANTLY decreases a teen's likelihood of addiction as an adult.
   In a recent study, drinking to get drunk was the main reason for drinking cited by nearly half the youth. Another survey found that most teen drinkers binge.

5. Teen use of alcohol and other drugs, like marijuana, is a primary issue in youth traffic accidents and fatalities.
   Did you know that car crashes are the leading cause of death for youth, ages 15 to 20, and that alcohol is a factor in 1/3 of the crashes involving teens.

6. If a teen drinks alcohol, s/he can face SERIOUS legal and other consequences.
   These consequences can include driver's license suspension or restriction, substance abuse screening and treatment at the parents' expense, fines up to $500, court costs, and community service. In addition, insurance coverage rises significantly or can be cancelled for conviction of alcohol-related offences. Teens found guilty of an alcohol offence may not be admitted to the college of their choice and can be ineligible for college scholarships.

THERE ARE MANY GOOD REASONS THAT THE LEGAL DRINKING AGE IS 21 YEARS.

Share this information with your teen today!

Sample Text Messages to Help your Child Avoid Alcohol, and Other Destructive Decisions

Texting is an increasingly popular way for parents to communicate with their children. Use or Adapt the following sample text messages as a means to keep connected and to positively reinforce an anti drug message.

Teens tell us to keep these guidelines in mind when texting and your teen will be more likely to respond positively:

1. Use positive messages - negative messages sounds too accusing.
2. Use full words - not numbers or single letters “because people don’t text like that anymore”.
3. Be brief, straight to the point - no lectures, no discussions over text please.
4. Cover most questions, rules and guidelines before they leave the house: What friends? Where? Etc.

FAVORITES:

1. Have fun tonight! Keep your curfew in mind. Call if you need anything
2. Have fun with your friends. Remember we are here if you need anything. (or call me if you need me)
3. Hi, how’s it going? Are you having fun?
4. I trust you to make good decisions tonight. Let me know if you need anything.
5. I want you to have fun tonight, but be safe
6. Just wanted to say hi. I love you.
7. Just wanted to say that I’m thinking about you
8. Be safe. We love you too much to see anything bad happen to you.
9. Resisting peer pressure is tough, but you can do whatever you set your mind to.
10. Have fun, keep in touch. Love you.

Dangers of E-Cigarettes and Other Vape Products

What are they?

Electronic cigarettes (also called e-cigarettes or electronic nicotine delivery systems) are battery-operated devices designed to deliver nicotine with flavorings or other flavored substances to users in a vapor instead of smoke. They can be manufactured to resemble tobacco cigarettes, cigars or pipes, or even pens or USB memory sticks. Newer devices, such as those with refillable tanks, may look different. More than 250 varieties of e-cigarette brands are currently on the market.

What You Should Know!

- The health risk of these products are currently unknown
- They are NOT regulated by the Food and Drug Administration
- Companies make a wide range of flavors (mint, candies and fruit), to target sales to teens
- Many that claim to be "nicotine free" contain nicotine
- Some flavorings have been identified as lung irritants
- Chemicals found in the smoke of these products, include formaldehyde, acetaldahyde, and acrolein
- E-cigarettes have NOT been proven effective as smoking-cessation aids

April is Alcohol Awareness Month

Student Assistance Center of Chippewa Valley High School

As SPRING BREAK, PROM, and GRADUATION approach, Parents need to consider the messages they send their teens regarding the use of alcohol.

Research tells us the following:

- Parents Who Send A Strong Message That They Will Not Tolerate Alcohol Use Are MUCH More Likely To Have Teens That Don't Drink.

- Parents Who "Look The Other Way" When Teens Drink Send The Message That Underage Drinking Is Acceptable And Are MUCH More Likely To Have Teens That Drink.

TEENS AND ALCOHOL DON'T MIX!

1) TEENS THAT DRINK ALCOHOL ARE AT RISK - for car crashes, alcohol poisoning and increased risky behaviors such as teen crime, violence, unwise or unwanted sexual activity, and personal injury. There is no "safe" teen drinking.

2) Research shows that the teen brain of teens is still developing and is much more negatively affected by alcohol, than the adult brain. Just one episode of binge drinking can cause damage to the teen brain.

3) Youth report that they drink to get drunk. There is NO responsible teen drinking! That's why the legal drinking age is 21.

4) Research proves that those who begin drinking before 21 are about 40% more likely to develop an addiction than if they were to wait. The younger someone drinks – the greater the chance for addiction. Underage drinking often leads to the use of other drugs.

5) Research also shows that school and athletic ability decrease when students use alcohol or other drugs.

6) If that is not reason enough, remember - Drinking underage is illegal. Parents that providing alcohol to minors and are breaking the law. They are subject to fines, penalties and civil lawsuits.

Here Today, Gone Tomorrow? NOT QUITE

A social media series for young adults and parents

Summertime provides many opportunities for teens and young adults to post on social media. The days are longer, the activities and adventures increase and the responsibilities of school and homework decrease. However, there are some important things to remember when posting online.

The Law of Unintended Consequences

Anything you post publically (or privately- if you have thousands of followers) could fall victim to this scenario or a similar one. Picture this, you're a 17-year-old National Honor Society member and Class President who posts a picture of yourself and your family/friends around a bonfire, watching fireworks at your Grandma's 75th birthday party, but Grandma is not in the picture. Just you and your cousins with red Solo cups in hand, fire burning, lots of smiles and cheers. You post this picture publically, but do not include a caption. What happens next?

The next day you go in for your big interview to be a camp counselor. The pay is awesome and you are excited for a job that you can spend all summer with little kids, while having fun outside. The interviewers really liked you and frankly you nailed the interview; the selection committee is making a final decision the next day. They narrowed it down to their two top candidates and YOU were one of those two people.

Later that night, one of the interviewers searched both the top two candidate's online profiles. He looked at their Twitter, Instagram and Facebook pages. The other candidate had posts about volunteering in a school clubs, helping senior citizens at a senior home and a couple family vacation photos with his Mom, Dad and Sister at the Grand Canyon. When they searched your profiles, they found pictures of you around a bonfire with your friends "partying with red solo cups", a picture of you being goofy with your friends in a bathroom, and a selfie shot of you lying in bed with your dog, Fluffy. Based on the top two candidates online profiles, who do you think they will choose?

I call it the Law of Unintended Consequences. If you post things online remember a picture can be worth 1000 words. Innocent group photos of you hanging out with your friends can be easily misconstrued by others on the opposite side of the screen. Be careful with what you post publically and privately. Make sure you add captions to your photos/posts and build a positive online profile.

Always try to build an online reputation that works for you and not against you. When college recruiters, scholarship offers and/or job opportunities come along and they look you up online, your profile will only help you and give you an advantage over others! Remember posting pictures online leaves a lasting digital footprint. Sophisticated search engines and other sites are now indexing and curating everything you post publically, so you can be assured something you post today, will still be around tomorrow. Be smart!

University Center "best of both worlds" for young go-getters

Tamarie Willis and Matthew Baffo, shown in photos to the right, are 30-somethings who have accomplished a great deal in a very short time. And both credit Macomb and its University Center for helping them do so.

Willis, earned bachelor and master degrees in social work from Wayne State University just last year and is now working at Wayne State as an Academic Advisor and on her Ph.D. She took all her pre-requisites at Macomb before transferring into Wayne State's program at the University Center.

"I was working midnights at a factory in Clinton Township, so I would work all night and then leave my job and go right to my classes," related Willis. "I was pretty tired some days, but the midnights allowed me to have my schedule open during the day. "I went full time and got through in two years."

Baffo, one of "four under 40" savvy executives to watch according to Macomb Now Magazine, graduated from Walsh College with a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree in 2008 and has been named First State Bank Mortgage Officer of the Year—twice.

"My experience at Macomb's University Center and Walsh College couldn't have worked out better," said Baffo.

"I was able to get a great jumpstart on my career. I really did get the best of both worlds."

Willis and Baffo are just two of the thousands who have taken advantage of the University Center on Macomb's Center Campus. Transferring from Macomb into one of more than 80 programs offered by 12 partner institutions, they complete their bachelor and/or master degrees there without dorm room costs or a long commute.

Learn more about the University Center at an open house on Wednesday, April 13, 4:30 to 7 p.m., with representatives from the 12 partner institutions available to answer questions. There will also be information on financial aid, the opportunity to speak with a Macomb counselor or advisor, and a tour of the facility.

And perhaps like Willis and Baffo, you will be well on your way to a successful career but with a little extra time to study, and to stop and smell the flowers.

"I loved the deer outside the windows at the University Center," said Willis. "They were such a welcomed distraction."

Work-study student finds "right environment" at Macomb

Jose Romo-Puerta knows his way around the globe, visiting family in Spain and Mexico and possessing a passport that has been stamped in France and Germany as well. But when he started attending Wayne State University after graduating from Grosse Pointe North High School, he was a bit lost about what he wanted to do.

"I majored in biology, and thought I might want to get into the medical field," says Romo-Puerta, "but after an anatomy class, I wasn't so sure."

Deciding that he needed to explore his options before committing to a major, Romo-Puerta switched to Macomb.

"Another student at Wayne told me that Macomb's credits would transfer and there was nothing to worry about," says Romo-Puerta. "I decided to quit wasting time and money and find out what it was I wanted to do."

After a few semesters at Macomb, Romo-Puerta is leaning toward a business administration or marketing degree. He is hoping his work-study position in Macomb's Marketing Department, for which he receives a paycheck, flexible schedule and a realistic view of what the field is like, will help him make the decision. Meanwhile, he has gladly watched his grade point average rise to As and Bs.

"I never used to be a study kind of guy," relates Romo-Puerta. "But with the great professors here and the work-study position that helps me stay focused, this has put me in the right environment."

Michigan Transfer Agreement (MTA) is a deal maker

Macomb's promise that credits earned in its courses transfer to four-year colleges and universities is backed up by the Michigan Transfer Agreement (MTA). The MTA assures the transfer of 30 credits in general education requirements from any Michigan community college to participating colleges and universities.

All public universities except Michigan State University participate in the MTA, as well as the following private ones:

- Baker College
- Davenport University
- Lawrence Technological University
- Madonna University
- Spring Arbor University
- Walsh College
