Union Communication

• Ms. MaryAnne Levine (CVEA President) expressed her concerns with not having new employee contracts as it gets closer to the start of school.

Administration Reports

Superintendent Roberts reported on the following:

- Recognized and congratulated Ms. Fran Moses on her 20 years of service as a crossing guard and lunch monitor for our district.
- Discussed Preparedness Plan for start up of school. Currently in the planning phase and will provide periodic updates to the Board of Education. Mr. Roberts discussed MISD and state timelines. This plan will formally come to the board of education at the August 10th meeting.
- Met with Dr. Adam Blanchard (Asst. Superintendent, Human Resources) and Ms. Tara Koch (Director, Special Education) to discuss the Creative Learning Program (CLP) at Wyandot Middle School. We provided the Board of Education with the numbers and the district-wide procedures in place along with considerations used in past years and what has been done to determine class size and other considerations in making our decisions.
- Superintendent Roberts reflected on the many contributions Mr. Edward Skiba has made to the district over his outstanding career.

Curriculum Reports

• Dr. Donald Brosky (Asst. Superintendent, Educational Services) provided an update on the Operations Committee as it prepares for the opening school in fall 2020. He presented details related to the scenarios.

Of and by Board Members

- Member Pyden encouraged everyone to take a brief moment to acknowledge the passing of Mr. Edward Skiba, former Assistant Superintendent for Educational Services. Ms. Pyden added that Mr. Skiba was a special person to all of us in his own way.
- Member Bednard acknowledged Mr. Edward Skiba's many great contributions to the district over the years.
- Member Patzert indicated he has worked with Mr. Skiba for 40 years and how it was a sad day for all of us. Member Patzert requested information on School of Choice numbers for the 2020-2021 school year.
- Board members discussed returning for in person Board of Education meetings as long as social distancing procedures can be accommodated in a larger room or space and as long as it's safe for everyone involved.
