- Minutes from the December 5, 2009 Parent Committee Meeting were approved by a unanimous vote.

- The application for the Indian Education Program for the 2010-2011 school year was reviewed by all present.
  - The budget was reviewed - $139, 307 is allocated to the Chippewa Valley Consortium for the 2010/2011 school year. Including: salaries, supplies, workshop funds, food/drink, etc.
  - 560 Native American students are included in the program from the Consortium for the 2010/2011 school year (losing students due to graduation faster than we are getting new enrollments)
  - Tutoring services will extend up to the 10th grade to meet the needs of students struggling in geometry
  - Middle school tutoring will take place after school hours
  - Review of MEAP scores/attendance rate/graduation rate of those enrolled in the program
- Motion made by Valeria Locklear to accept the grant for the 2010/2011 school year, second motion made by Felicia Barlow, all present agreed to the term written and all members present signed the Parent Committee Approval Form of the Title VII Formula Grant Program. Maria Chisholm explained that this form needs to be fax to the Department of Education in Washington D.C., within 3 business days of certifying the new Grant.

- Ideas for announcing the next public hearing parent committee meeting include advertising on the local cable CVS channel in addition to the newspaper advertisement.

- Next workshop is scheduled for May 29, 2010 – registrations may now begin to participate. There will be a possible additional workshop in June.

- Discussion of helpful websites and educational activities for parents to help their students over the summer (see Indian Ed website and www.CMPL.org for details)

- The meeting was adjourned by a unanimous decision at 5:07 p.m.
