The Public Hearing and Parent Meeting for the Indian Education Grant was called to order at 4:10 pm on May 2, 2012 by Maria Chisholm. All in attendance were asked to sign in.

The Grant for the 2012-2013 school year has been completed and was presented. Maria reviewed the procedures used for identifying students for tutoring. The budget for next year was presented with the majority of the allotted funds earmarked for the tutoring program. Approximately 200 students from the four districts in the Consortium received service this year. We also included high schools students for the first time. The hours for tutoring have been increased for next year to accommodate our increasing numbers of students.

Suggestions for next year included:

• publicizing our program on the local cable station
• taping the workshops and broadcast them on cable
• broadcasting the dates of parent meetings on the cable channel

The members in attendance signed their approval of the Grant.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:55 pm.
