

Hello! I am
Braidy and I
am going to help you
with your story
retelling
and writing.

My face
represents
the characters
in the story.

This star
represents the setting of the story (where
and when it
takes place).

The shoe is the kick off (what happens to change our ho hum day).

The heart
represents
our feelings
after the kick-off.

The hand
represents
the plan
made after
the kick-off
and
feelings.

The rings represent the events that take place to carry out our plan.

The tie
the resolution
or how things were
wrapped
up.

I hope I have helped you
with your story
retelling and writing.
